PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE

CONSTITUTION OF MISSOUR

To be Submitted to the Qualified Voters at the General Election to be Held in This State on November 4th, 1890.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri an amendment to the Constitution thereof, concerning the ju-

To Compounding Physicians' Prescriptions and Family dicial department. Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring STANDARD PATENT MEDICINES

That at the general election to be held on the Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, A. D. 1890, the following amendment to the constitution of Missouri, concerning Will take Pleasure in Obtaining for You any Medicine, or the judicial department, shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said

SECTION 1. The supreme court shall consist of seven judges, and, after the first Monday in January, 1891, shall be divided into two divisions, as follows: One division to consist of four judges of the court and to be known as division number one, the other to consist of the remaining judges and to be known as division number two. The divisions shall sit separately for the hearing and disposition of causes and matters pertaining thereto, and shall have concurrent jurisdiction of all matters and causes in the supreme court, except that division number two shall have exclusive cognizance of all criminal cases pending in said court: Provided that a cause therein may be transferred to the court as provided in section four of this amendment. The division of business of which said divisions have e meurrent jurisdiction shall be made as the supreme court may determine. A majority of the judges of a division shall constitute a quorum thereof, and all orders, judgments and decrees et either division, as to causes and matters pending before it, shall have the force and effect of those of the court. SEC. 2. Upon the adoption of this amendment, the governor shall ap-point two additional judges of the su-preme court, who shall hold their of-fices until the first Monday in January, 1893, and at the general election in the year 1892 their successors shall be elected, who shall hold their offices for the term of ten years, as other judges of the supreme court. The two judges appointed by the governor, together with the judge elected at the general election in the year 1890, shall constitute division number two, and the remaining judges shall constitute division number one. The court shall elect its chief justice and each division a pre-siding judge thereof.

SEC. 3. The supreme court shall assign to each division the causes and matters to be heard by it, of which assignment due public notice shall be given, and all laws relating to practice in the supreme court, as well as the rules of the supreme court, snall apply to each division so far as they may be applicable thereto. The opinion of each division shall be in writing, and shall be filed in the causes in which they shall be respectively made during the term at which the cause is submitted, and such opinions shall be a part of the records of the supreme court. Each division shall have authority to issue the original writs and exercise the powers enumerated in section three of article six of the Constitution.

SEC. 4. When the judges of a divis-ion are equally divided in opinion in a cause or where a judge of a division dissents from the opinion therein, or where a federal question is involved, the cause, on the application of the losing party, shall be transferred to the court for its decision; or where a division in which a cause is pending shall so order, the cause shall be transferred to the court for its decision, SEC. 5. Whenever in the opinion of the supreme court the state of its docket with reference to speedy disposition of the business of the court will justify before provided, the court shall dispense therewith, and the court shall thereafter hear and determine all dispensing with the divisions hereincauses pending in it: Provided, however, that the court shall have the power to again divide itself into two divisions, in like manner and with like power and effect as hereinbefore provid-ed, whenever in the opinion of six judg-es thereof, entered of record, the condition of its decket with reference to the speedy disposition of the business of the ion the four judges oldest in commission shall constitute division number one, and the remaining Judges division number two.

Sec. 7. All provisions of the constitution of the state, and all laws thereof not consistent with this amendment, shall upon its adoption be forever rescinded and of no effect.

the currency in a healthy way, and provides he conditions of prosperity to confront the Democratic party. The bill is a swindle because:

First-It pretends to be a bill to increase the currency, while it is really a bill to restrict it and govern it as inver and provides for the cessation of silver. As Mr. Halstead knows.

Third-Because it enables the Secretary of the Tressury to control the money supply, the value of money, and the price of silver bullion at his discretion as far as it is possible to do so by an abuse of government powers. As Mr. Halstead knows.

Fourth-It is a swindle because it perpetuates the control of money in the hands of the corporations in the Plutocratic States, in whose interest the Treasury is managed. As Mr. Halstead knows.

Fifth-It is a swindle because it helps the Northeast to take $1.10 and upwards back for every $1 it allows to come West. As Mr. Halstead knows. Sixth-It is an outrageous and infamous swindle because it corners silver bullion as a commodity, and does t at the expense of the people by using heir money to buy it at higher prices ixed at the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury; and because when it is thus purchased, it provides for storing it in the Treasury; and keeping it cornered, while gold received on the $1,000 certificates of deposit issued to speculators can be reinvested by them in bullion, which can be by them resold to the Treasury at the expense of the people whenever the Treasury makes a further advance of price. As Mr. Halstead shows.

If we suppose that Mr. Halstead has already bought 10,000 ounces of silver builion and sold them for gold at the Treasury, all he has to do is to reinvest in silver bullion when the Treasury depresses the price and sell it for ST.
